

Regal Media Group LLC

1. The Squire Parsons Trio “There’s A Miracle For Me” (4:04)
Squire E. Parsons Jr. / Safe Passage Music / BMI

From the pen of Squire Parsons comes yet another of his heart stirring songs of hope, delivered with the voice only he has until joined by the trio including Sam Parsons on verse two. Radio audiences will love this song.

2. The Providence Quartet “Behold I Come Quickly” (4:16)
Greg Day / Heathers House Music / BMI

From The Providence Quartet, Pendleton, SC and their CD entitled “Everything” 2008, comes this stirring ballad with their strong quartet style and well-produced tracks by Art Bain.

3. The Porter Family “In The Valley He Restoreth My Soul” (3:51)
Joyce Reba Rambo / John T. Benson Publishing / BMI

From The Porter Family, Waynesville, NC CD titled “Standing On My Knees” comes a great old song from Reba Rambo delivered by the exciting vocal talents of Shawn Porter, his mom Betty and dad Will.

4. Mountain Joy “She’s Gone” (3:54)
Tammy Rogers / SwanSound Music / BMI

In the smooth style, for which Mountain Joy from Waynesville NC has become so well known, comes a Tammy Rogers song written with heartfelt lines only Mountain Joy could deliver so well.

5. The Inmans “Walking In God’s Sunshine” (2:48)
Kathy Inman Messer / SwanSound Music / BMI

This is that wonderful feel-good song we all need from time-to-time, delivered by beautiful four part harmony from an all ladies quartet, and they’re all sisters - The Inmans, from Waynesville, NC.

6. Promise Ministries “God Has Been So Good To Me” (3:51)
David Wiliford / Wiliford Music / BMI

From the trio of Cameron, Madden, & Sexton and their CD entitled “ Wonders Never Cease” comes this mix that will have audiences clapping and singing along. The talent of this trio is “World Class”.